

STUDENTS AS PARTNERS IN WIDENING PARTICIPATION

Empowering Under-Represented Students to Take Action!

Jenny Murphy, HEAR Student Adviser
 Dr Lisa Padden, Academic Skills Coordinator
 Julie Tonge, Disability Student Adviser

UCD Access Student Leadership Programme

Student Feedback

- #### Benefits Identified by Current Access Leaders
- Confidence
 - Public Speaking
 - Leadership skills
 - Team work
 - Self awareness and reflection
 - Knowledge of available supports and UCD services
 - Improved college experience
 - Better equipped for the workplace
 - Managing groups
 - Pride

“It provides a sense of pride and place, in both UCD and in demonstrating to your school how well you're doing.”

I am a more active UCD student now that I have this position.

Involvement with Access gave me a sense of belonging because I felt like I was contributing something beneficial to the college .

